

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 14, 2003

Contact: Bryan Herb
Phone: 773 413-6002
Fax: 773 413-6004
bryan@zoomvacations.com

Gay Tour Provider Meets Demand for Gay Honeymoon Packages

October 14, 2003 - Gay men and lesbians seeking fun, safe, meaningful honeymoons or commitment ceremonies now have place to turn with the birth of gay owned, Zoom Vacations. Zoom offers an array of gay vacations to exotic destinations around the world, and specializes in creating magical honeymoons.

"Gay couples have specific needs on their honeymoons, but above all, is the need to feel comfortable and safe," said Zoom Vacations co-founder, Joel Cabrera, "At the same time, many destinations that weren't very gay- friendly 10 years ago, have now opened their doors to us, and are actually seeking us out."

"As the world becomes a more accepting, embracing place for gay people, I think most of us are finding that we no longer need to huddle in gay ghettos or the gay circuit in order to be ourselves and feel comfortable," said Cabrera. "Zoom provides the opportunity for us to travel while feeling comfortable, free, and out. All of our trips, including those for the purposes of a commitment ceremony or honeymoon are researched to ensure that all hotels, restaurants, and excursions are gay friendly, safe, and the best value." he said.

All honeymoon excursions are luxurious while remaining value-driven. One can find several week-long land-only packages with 4 and 5 star accommodations, including several meals and excursions, for under $2,000 to destinations such as Australia, Peru, Costa Rica, and more.

With packages such as "Romancing Costa Rica" "Thailand Kaleidoscope" "Zoom Peru" and "Zoom South Africa," Zoom Vacations has its finger on the pulse of romantic, exotic, luxurious travel. Their website, www.zoomvacations.com contains general information about these trips and more, but you should call them to discuss specific arrangements for your honeymoon or commitment ceremony.

For more information, please go to www.zoomvacations.com, or call 1 866 966-6822.

END